

Maya K. Fares presents” How to paint “Black, White and Gold pearls on Porcelain”

My demo is about how to paint pearls, white, black and Gold one.

I have learned this technique from the Artist Peter Faust but i have made some experiments and i came up with new technique.

Follow my instructions to know how.

You need :

Closed medium MX54 or Copaïva

Turpentine

Mother of pearl Lustre

Colours Grey Pink Black Purple and Green

Matt white

1- draw your pearls on the porcelain support with Grey colour mixed with a pen oil medium and let it dry.

2- paint the whole white pearls with mother of pearl lustre. Let it dry then fire it 780°C

3- Mix colours with MX54 or Copaïva

4- start painting the pearls with grey and pink colour, use stipler to soften the color, taking care of the shadows and highlights .

5- make the shadow of the pearls. Fire it 780°C

6- make a wash with grey and a small black line with a liner

Gold Pearl

1- Draw the pearls with Grey colour

2- put Gold colour let it dry and fire it 780°C

3- paint the pearls with black

4- add shadow with grey colour, use stipler to soften the colour. Fire it 780°C

Black Pearl

1- Draw the pearls with grey colour

2- mix black and purple colour and paint the pearls.

3- make the highlights

4- add some green in the highlight and use stipler for smoothing colours

5- add the shadow with Grey. Fire at 780°C

6- add again Black if needed

7- with a liner intense the outline of the pearl especially in the darkest side. Fire 780°C

The plate is 17.5 cm

